Mrs. Hudson's Headlines

Parent Teacher Conferences!!!

Our first parent teacher conferences will be held this Wednesday, September 27th from 4:00pm until 8:00pm. We will only have one evening of conferences so that we can have conferences in the early spring. This is a great opportunity for you to meet teachers and discuss your child's progress. We will also be handing out student PARCC and CMAS scores from last spring. We hope to see you all here.

We will also be having a book fair all this week. The book fair will be open during conferences for you to be able to shop with your child. Students will be able to shop all week and buy some new books.

Upcoming opportunity for students!!!

There is a Trail Leadership training on October 7th and 8th with the Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado. There are slots for approximately 11 youth participants. Participants will have an advantage for trail crew positions hired through our GOCO Inspire, or USFS, BLM trail crews next summer. There may be a nominal charge ($10-20) for this training and also includes a 4 hour on-line component. First come, first served on signup.

The link for that registration is: <https://fw.civcore.com/voc/index.php?section=indGpRegistrations&action=indGpRegistration2&fwID=53859>

Remember to sign the tear off below and have your child return to their teacher.

"Last week A Kidz Clinic challenged you all to be students of self affirmation, this week we are challenging you to be students of gratitude. Each day this week we want you to pick one or two things you are grateful for and remind yourself of those things all day long. It could be anything, a person, a feeling, or an object. Gratitude is a big part of life and if we are consistently grateful for what we have now, we are welcoming more great things to come. Have a great week everyone, here at A Kidz Clinic we are grateful for you all!"
